BOUZY ROUGE coteaux champenois

A wine fit for the Kings of France – Louis XIV was very fond of it. The Bouzy Rouge is a still wine obtained from a traditional red wine vinification.

To the nose its power develops aromas of red fruits, on the palate it is fruity with hints of cherries, Morello cherries and raspberries. Its freshness is surprising and its slightly acidic taste makes you think of fruity sweets.

It is perfect with small game dishes, white meats and of course cheeses.
